

Volunteer Category Descriptions

Please complete the volunteer nomination form (you can add more pages if needed) and return it to the Bosque County Extension Office by November 19, 2018.

You may submit more than one form if you would like to nominate volunteers in multiple categories.

Return to: Texas A&M AgriLife Extension – Bosque County

Mailing Address:

104 S. Fuller

Meridian, Texas 76665

Fax: 254-435-6231

Email: bosque-tx@tamu.edu

Agriculture & Natural Resources: Volunteers in this category work to promote agriculture awareness and agribusiness in Bosque County.

Civic Organizations & Community Service: Volunteers in this category work to improve their community through service. These volunteers may serve through a civic organization or contribute their time individually.

Community Festivals & Events: Volunteers work to organize and promote festivals and events in Bosque County to promote tourism, raise money, or provide opportunities for family fun.

Fire Department & First Responders: Volunteers serve as a fire fighter or first responder, or they might work to help raise funds and support for the Volunteer Fire Departments in Bosque County.

Family & Health Services: Volunteers in this category work to provide family and health education or to meet the physical needs of community members.

Youth Services: These volunteers serve Bosque County youth by leading youth organizations, raising support or funds for youth activities and scholarships, or mentoring youth.

